CLS will not represent you in court. You are responsible for knowing when your court hearings are scheduled and you must appear at all court hearings.

Signing this Agreement means you agree to cooperate with CLS. You will:

- Keep your appointments;
- Keep your contact information (address, phone numbers) updated;
- Tell us the truth about your situation;
- Return phone calls;
- Answer any questions about your case;
- Tell CLS about any changes in your income or assets;
- Not talk to the lawyer on the other side, unless CLS asks you to, and
- Do other things CLS may reasonably ask of you.

CLS can stop assisting you if we have a good reason, such as your income went up or you have not cooperated. But we must tell you what the reason is and give you a chance to tell your side. We can give you this chance only if you have kept your telephone and address updated. CLS may also transfer your case to another law firm or CLS attorney or paralegal.

You can tell CLS to stop assisting you at any time. If you are not happy with CLS, you can fill out a complaint.

Payment. CLS will not charge you for legal services. But, you must pay all out-of-pocket costs, including fees for serving papers, copying, depositions, and court costs such as for filing papers at court.

If you cannot afford the court costs, you may ask the court for a Cost Waiver. That means you would not have to pay the court costs. CLS can advise you about asking for a Cost Waiver.

CLS may ask you for a deposit to cover your out-of-pocket costs. If you deposit more money than needed, we will return the remaining funds to you. If we cannot find you, we may keep your money as a donation.

If you cannot afford to pay for out-of-pocket costs of your case, CLS may pay the costs for now. But you will have to pay CLS back later even if you lose your case. If your money situation is very bad, CLS may make an exception.

Privacy. CLS will keep your information private and held in confidence unless you give us permission, or the law requires us to disclose the information. We recommend that you keep your conversations with CLS private because if you tell anyone about our conversations, they may no longer be confidential. CLS will keep your records for ten years, and then we will destroy them.

How your case will end. Although CLS cannot guarantee how your case will end or make promises to you about the outcome of your case, we can give you our legal opinion and advice. You may win, you may lose, or you may agree to settle with the other side. If you get an offer to settle with the other side, you do not have to settle if you do not want to.
